Act I, Scene i

Dear Alumnus/Alumna,

Our annual foray to Shakespeare at Boscobel well supplies liver - with Brimstone Hill's best vintage from Dick Eldridge '59, brain - with play analysis by Prof. Marlis Paffenroth ALM 93, and heart - with the romance of Hudson Valley Shakespeare Festival's professional production of Twelfth Night.

It also includes hearty al fresco buffet - crab cakes, salmon, chicken, ribs, vegetables, pastries, etc. - consumed in lively company under the maple behind the historic house. Perhaps no violets but a bank of roses, sweeping lawn to wide river, mountainous horizon.

The perfect time for a preview of Twelfth Night is Eleventh Night - June 11th, Sunday at 5:30 for wine, feast, talk, welcome by Festival Director, and then the play's the thing.

Boscobel is just south of Cold Spring at 1601 Route 9D, seven miles north of the Bear Mountain Bridge - worth the voyage. I hope you can join us, for music, food, maybe even love.

Collegially,

Roger Christenfeld '57
President Emeritus
